

Sparse populations and large oil reserves make North Dakota and Wyoming the two highest emitting states in the US

The State of Emissions: Carbon Dioxide Emissions, 2021

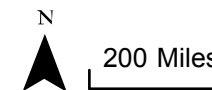

CO2 Emissions, Metric
Tons Per Capita

Created by Made x Made from Noun Project

*Notes: By Joe Mahoney, 11/14/23, Albers Equal Area Conic, Central Meridian: 96° W, Standard parallels: 33.3° N 41.7° N; Alaska/Hawaii Albers Equal Area Conic for inset maps. Sources: Esri open data portal, U.S. Energy Information Administration (EIA), Noun Project: Emissions by Made x Made

*Alaska and Hawaii not to scale